Household Inventory

Whether you're still unpacking boxes from your recent move or whether your boxes of memorabilia have been stashed away for years, the contents in your home are valuable. Your house or apartment would not be a home without your belongings

Trying to appraise your belongings would be a difficult task without an organized format to follow. This brochure enables you to record an accurate assessment of your belongings. Should a loss occur, your completed inventory will help you to readily identify the extent of the loss.

ERIE recognizes how important your personal belongings are to you. And it is important to us to provide you with the service you deserve. Therefore, we have designed this home inventory form.

The following instructions will aid you in completing this form.

- Simply enter the RC (replacement cost—current cost to replace the article) of each item, then total each room.
- Estimate any items necessary.
- Enter each room total on page 2. Then add the entire column to determine the value of your contents.
- Enter your present personal property insurance limit and compare this amount to your total contents value.

IMPORTANT:

If the amount of insurance protection on your contents is lower than the value shown, contact your ERIE Agent so your policy can be properly adjusted.
